Title I Annual Notice

JCS-Pine Hills receives funds from the Federal government for Title I schools under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). As a parent of a child who attends a Title I school, you have the right to request and receive information regarding your child's education.

By law, you have the right to:

- Request information regarding the professional qualifications of your child's teacher;
- Be notified if your child has been assigned to or taught by a teacher who is considered out -of field because the teacher does not hold certification in the subject area or grade level being taught;
- Inquire if non-teacher personnel are providing instruction to your child and, if so, their professional qualifications;
- Be provided information on your child's level of achievement and academic growth on state academic assessments.

To request information regarding the qualifications of teachers and non-teachers providing instruction to your child, please call contact our Title I coordinator:

Jillian Tonkin, Principal
jtonkin@jcs-inc.org
619-346-3560

The school will notify you about your child's level of achievement and academic growth on state academic assessments and if your child is assigned to a teacher who does not hold certification in the subject area or grade level being taught.

Thank you for your continued interest and involvement in your child's education.
