Dear Parent or Guardian:

Your student, [Insert Student Name], was loaned the material(s) listed below and it has come to our attention that these item(s) were returned in damaged condition. Since the material(s) was determined to be damaged beyond repair, you are requested to send a check in the amount listed below to cover the cost of replacement. It is a violation of school policy and California State Law to damage or destroy school materials.

Education Code 48904 mandates the Governing Board establish school policy for seeking reparation when school property is damaged or not returned. The JCS, Inc. Damaged, Lost, and Non-Returned Materials Policy states that a collection agency may be contacted if reparation is not made.

Material(s)

Cost

Please submit a check to cover the replacement cost within two weeks of receiving this notice. Please make the check payable to JCS, Inc. and attach the check to this letter before mailing.
